

Azman Shah reappointed MEF president

PETALING JAYA: The Malaysian Employers Federation Council has appointed Datuk Azman Shah as its president for the second term from 2008 to 2010.

Azman is the chairman of Antara Villas Sdn Bhd and Alangka-Suka Hotels which owns and manages Holiday Villa international chain of hotels which he founded.

At its annual general meeting on Wednesday, the council also chose Ramadass of Ramadass & Associates, Abdul Wahab Abu Bakar of Nestle (M) Berhad, Norida Hamid from the Association of Insurance Employers (AIE) and Christopher Raj of the Association of Hotel Employers (AHE) as its vice-presidents.

During the AGM, Azman announced the admission of the Malaysian Agricultural Producers Association (Mapa) as its 16th associated member.

"With Mapa joining the federation two weeks ago, MEF today represents all the economic sectors and has achieved its vision of becoming the biggest employer organisation in Malaysia," he said.
