"I knew about AeU through Facebook and Instagram. I chose AeU because of its flexibility in the part-time blended learning mode that works well for me as a single parent. I can study at my own pace without giving up my job and only need to attend classes once a month during weekends. I enjoyed my job and the thought of understanding and researching the links between people, motivation and organisation performance excites me. I enrolled in the Master of Human Resource programme in January 2019 to upgrade my academic qualifications and to enhance my career path".
